BASKETBALL

ILKESTON Outlaws Basketball Club has honoured players from across all age groups at its annual awards night at West Park Leisure Centre in Long Eaton.

The club, which includes senior men and women's teams as well as a junior and mini section, handed out awards in a number of different categories, including players' player of the year, coaches' player of the year, and various positional and most improved player awards across the board.

The main award winners were:

Senior women's players' player - Natalie Lebeter.

Senior women's coaches' player - Sophie May.

Senior women's most valuable player - Natalie Lebeter

Cougars first team player of the year - Rich Bailey.

Cougars first team most valuable player - Geoff Ball

Hawks first team player of the year - Tom Goshawk.
